KLAIPEDA, LITHUANIA, July 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rita Vala is a songwriter and journalist whose work masterfully bridges raw human emotion with cutting-edge technology.

Not a Daddy's Girl is her third single - a deeply personal yet universally resonant track inspired by her own life. Rita's father left her family before she was born. Raised by a single mother who struggled to make ends meet, she grew up carrying the quiet ache of his absence. One day her mother, visiting her old native village, casually showed the yellow house where her father lived, but Rita has never knocked on that door. That haunting image became the seed for the song. While rooted in her real story, "Not a Daddy's Girl" transcends the personal. It speaks to anyone who has ever longed for the love of a parent they never truly knew - or lost too early. The song is for daughters still waiting, and equally for the fathers who walked away. Rita hopes that through these lyrics, some of those men will feel the weight of what they left behind and realise: it's never too late to
