ESSEX, UNITED KINGDOM, July 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Essex DJ and producer Pappy releases new football-themed track "Offside Trap"

DJ and producer Pappy, based in Essex, has released a new original track titled "Offside Trap".

Pappy writes and produces all of his own material. His productions combine elements of house, urban, and commercial dance music, with an emphasis on strong rhythms and hooks. The artist performs regularly and is known for maintaining full creative control over his work, from initial composition through to final production.

"Offside Trap" is a football-focused track aimed at England supporters. It incorporates terrace-style energy and crowd-inspired sounds, reflecting the atmosphere of match days and the experience of following the national team.

Offside Trap

Pappy said: "Football runs through my veins just like music does. 'Offside Trap' is for every England fan who's stood on the terraces and supported the team through every moment. I wanted to create something that captures that feeling."

The track is now available on major streaming platforms. It is expected to be played at football-related events, parties, and live sets over the coming months.
