

St. Cyprian Food Pantry Volunteers Celebrate Chicago Christmas Tradition Aboard Amtrak Carol Train

St. Cyprian Food Pantry volunteers celebrated Chicago's holiday season with fellowship, music, and community connection aboard the Amtrak Christmas Carol Train

ROCKFORD, IL, UNITED STATES, July 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Volunteers from St. Cyprian Food Pantry celebrated Chicago's Christmas traditions through fellowship and community connection aboard the Amtrak Christmas Carol Train. The gathering brought together members of the Christian community to share music, friendship, and holiday spirit while reflecting the values of service and compassion that support the pantry's mission throughout the year.

Among the volunteers participating was DJ Mr. Alexandrovski, who joined fellow St. Cyprian community members for the holiday experience. His participation reflected the importance of community involvement, shared traditions, and supporting organizations that serve local families.

"Community is built through both service and connection. Events like this give volunteers an opportunity to celebrate together while recognizing the importance of helping and supporting one another throughout the year," said Alex Prokouchkine of Prokushkin LLC.

The Amtrak Christmas Carol Train event provided an opportunity for St. Cyprian Food Pantry volunteers to experience one of Chicago's beloved holiday traditions while strengthening relationships among community members. The celebration highlighted how faith-based volunteer organizations create connections beyond their regular service activities.

Although the celebration took place during the Christmas season, the story reflects the year-
