The strategic partnership is designed to provide flexible financing solutions that enable small and medium-sized businesses throughout the United States to acquire high-quality heavy equipment while preserving working capital and accelerating business growth.

"This Memorandum of Understanding reflects our shared commitment to supporting entrepreneurs with greater access to capital," said Mr. Dennis Tan, CEO of TYPHON Machinery. "Together, we can help businesses modernize their machinery, improve productivity, and build long-term value through equipment ownership."

Through this collaboration, customers purchasing TYPHON Machinery equipment will gain access to financing programs tailored to their operational requirements. These solutions will support the acquisition of mini excavators, skid steer loaders, forklifts, wheel loaders, road rollers, scissor lifts, and other heavy construction equipment through flexible repayment options.

As demand for construction, infrastructure development, logistics, agriculture, and industrial equipment continues to grow across the United States, access to flexible equipment financing has become increasingly important for businesses seeking to expand while preserving cash flow. Through its vendor finance platform and decades of equipment financing experience, Priority Capital provides financing solutions that help businesses invest in productive assets without significant upfront capital expenditure. This partnership enables TYPHON Machinery customers to benefit from faster financing decisions, competitive financing structures, and a simplified equipment purchasing process.

By introducing flexible financing programs through Priority Capital, TYPHON Machinery aims to help our customers acquire the machinery they require.

Soporadara Rin, a representative of TYPHON Machinery, said many growing businesses prefer financing solutions that allow them to expand their fleets while maintaining healthy cash flow.

"By introducing flexible financing programs through Priority Capital, we aim to help our customers acquire the machinery they need today while preserving capital for future growth. This strategic partnership reflects our commitment to delivering not only premium equipment but also complete business solutions that support our customers' long-term success."

With the signing of this Memorandum of Understanding, Priority Capital becomes TYPHON Machinery's preferred strategic financing partner, further strengthening TYPHON 's commitment to providing customers with both world-class heavy equipment and accessible financing solutions.
