

PepUp Announces Fall 2026 Lee & Audrey McMahan Endowed Scholarship Recipients

FEDERALSBURG, MD, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PepUp Announces Fall 2026 Lee & Audrey McMahan Endowed Scholarship Recipients

Three Chesapeake College students receive scholarship funding through the McMahan family's endowed program.

PepUp, a propane and fuel delivery company serving Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, has announced the Fall 2026 recipients of the Lee & Audrey McMahan Endowed Scholarship at Chesapeake College.

The Fall 2026 scholarship recipients each received $2,000. They are:

- Aubrey Taylor, daughter of PepUp Billing Supervisor Kristen Taylor. Aubrey will enter the radiology program this fall.
- Kirsten Harding, daughter of PepUp Junior Accountant Jessica Harding. Kirsten will enter the veterinary technician program this fall.
- John Wingrove, son of PepUp Executive Assistant Melanie Wingrove. John will enter the general studies program this fall.

The entire PepUp and Tri Gas and Oil Family of Companies wishes to congratulate these students on their selection for the scholarship and their commitment to continuing education.

The Lee & Audrey McMahan Endowed Scholarship was established in 1992 by Keith McMahan in honor of his parents, Lee and Audrey McMahan. The scholarship is available to PepUp employees and their dependents, providing funding for tuition, fees, and books at Chesapeake College. Awards support both degree programs and workforce certification tracks.

"It's been a privilege to support Chesapeake College's mission and to see firsthand the difference it makes for local families. Through the Lee & Audrey McMahan Endowed Scholarship, we're able to extend our family's commitment to opportunity and growth, helping Tri Gas Family of Companies employees and their loved ones achieve their educational goals and build stronger futures in the communities we all call home."

— Nash McMahan, President, PepUp

Nash McMahan serves as the third-generation president of PepUp and served on the Chesapeake College Board of Trustees from 2010 to 2024, including a term as board chair.
