

Itransition Ranked #1 Among Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central Partners by ERP Research

ERP Research recognizes Itransition's expertise in delivering Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central solutions across industries worldwide.

DECATUR, GA, UNITED STATES, July 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Itransition, a global software engineering and IT consulting company and an official Microsoft Dynamics Partner since 2008, has been ranked #1 in ERP Research's list of Top Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central Partners. The recognition highlights Itransition's extensive expertise in delivering Microsoft Dynamics 365 solutions that help organizations modernize finance, operations, supply chains, sales, and customer engagement while accelerating digital transformation through cloud technologies and artificial intelligence.

Itransition #1 in Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central Partners by ERP Research

Published by ERP Research, the annual Dynamics 365 Business Central Partners ranking evaluates leading Microsoft implementation partners based on factors including product expertise, breadth of services, industry specialization, implementation capabilities, Microsoft recognitions, and overall market presence. The directory serves as a trusted resource for organizations evaluating Microsoft Dynamics partners and identifying solution providers with proven experience delivering successful ERP projects across industries.

Earning the top position reinforces Itransition's long-standing commitment to helping organizations maximize the value of Microsoft business applications. Over nearly two decades as a Microsoft Dynamics Partner, the company has combined deep Dynamics 365 expertise with enterprise software engineering, cloud modernization, AI, and system integration capabilities to deliver scalable, future-ready business solutions. Today, Itransition supports organizations worldwide throughout every stage of their Dynamics 365 journey—from strategic consulting and implementation to customization, integration, modernization, and long-term support.

What Makes Itransition Stand Out as a Leading Business Central Partner

1. Itransition

Ranked first in ERP Research's list, Itransition combines nearly two decades of Microsoft expertise with extensive software engineering capabilities, enabling customers to modernize business processes through end-to-end digital transformation initiatives rather than standalone ERP implementations.

An official Microsoft Dynamics Partner since 2008, Itransition provides the complete lifecycle of Dynamics 365 Business Central services, from business consulting, solution architecture, implementation, customization, integration, data migration, and modernization to user training, managed support, and continuous optimization.

Unlike traditional ERP implementation providers, Itransition combines Microsoft Dynamics expertise with advanced software engineering, cloud architecture, AI, data analytics, and enterprise integration services. This allows the company to deliver tailored business applications that integrate seamlessly with existing enterprise ecosystems while leveraging AI capabilities to automate workflows, improve forecasting, enhance customer experiences, and support data-driven decision-making.

Itransition serves organizations across numerous industries, including manufacturing, logistics and distribution, retail, automotive, financial services, healthcare, real estate, and insurance. The company operates internationally with delivery capabilities across Germany, Lithuania, Mexico, Poland, the United Arab Emirates, the United Kingdom, and the United States.
