

The New York Women's Foundation's 2026 Neighborhood Dinner Comes to Queens

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The New York Women's Foundation invites community members, partners, supporters, civic leaders, and friends to save the date for the 2026 Neighborhood Dinner, taking place on Tuesday, November 10th, 2026, at the Museum of the Moving Image in Astoria, Queens.

This year, Queens takes center stage. One of the most dynamic and diverse boroughs in the world, Queens reflects the spirit of New York City at its best: vibrant, resilient, connected, and powered by community. The 2026 Neighborhood Dinner will celebrate the people, organizations, and partnerships working every day to help Queens communities thrive.

For more than three decades, The Foundation's Neighborhood Dinner has brought New Yorkers together across boroughs to honor local leadership, deepen connections, and invest in community-led change. This year's gathering will welcome longtime supporters and new friends for an evening of connection, celebration, and shared commitment to a more just and equitable city.

The event will spotlight individuals and organizations creating opportunity, advancing justice, and strengthening the leadership of women, girls, and gender-expansive people across New York City.
