NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Felicia Day presents Third Eye, an award-winning fantasy audio drama that combines sharp humor, magical adventure, and compelling storytelling in an immersive listening experience. Recognized with the 2024 Audie Award for Audio Drama, the production follows an unlikely heroine whose failed destiny leads to an unexpected opportunity for redemption. Featuring a full ensemble cast, the audiobook offers a cinematic narrative that showcases the growing appeal of original scripted audio entertainment.

Third Eye by Felicia Day

Set in a magical version of San Francisco, Third Eye introduces Laurel Pettigrew, a young woman who was destined to defeat the dark wizard Tybus but instead became an outcast after her mission failed. Joined by her loyal companions, including a quick-witted fairy and an unconventional vampire, Laurel embarks on a dangerous journey after meeting a mysterious newcomer whose secrets may change everything. Blending fantasy, comedy, and action, the story explores courage, friendship, and the determination to rewrite one's future.

Day created Third Eye to deliver an original fantasy adventure that embraces flawed heroes, memorable humor, and emotionally grounded storytelling. By placing an imperfect protagonist at the center of an epic quest, she offers a fresh perspective on familiar fantasy themes while celebrating resilience, teamwork, and second chances. The production's dynamic performances and engaging dialogue reflect her passion for creating stories that entertain while resonating with modern audiences.

Beyond its adventurous plot, the audio drama explores themes of identity, redemption, and the strength found in unlikely friendships. Laurel's journey demonstrates that personal growth often emerges through failure, perseverance, and the willingness to confront fear. The richly imagined world, combined with its ensemble performances and imaginative storytelling, creates an engaging experience that highlights the creative possibilities of the audio drama format.

Third Eye is ideal for listeners who enjoy fantasy, comedy, and character-driven adventures. Fans of immersive audio productions, role-playing-inspired storytelling, and humorous quests will appreciate its blend of fast-paced action and heartfelt moments. The production also appeals to audiences seeking original entertainment that showcases the collaborative talents of a distinguished voice cast while delivering an engaging listening experience from beginning to end.

Felicia Day is an acclaimed author, actress, writer, and producer known for her contributions to digital entertainment, gaming culture, and speculative fiction. Her creative work has earned recognition for its originality, wit, and memorable characters. Through Third Eye, she continues to expand the possibilities of audio storytelling by delivering an imaginative adventure brought to life by an accomplished ensemble of performers.
