

Shire Lane Guest House at Shire Lane Estate Now Booking Overnight Stays at St. Charles' Newest Event Destination

Expansive 4-bedroom guesthouse with bonus loft offers private estate accommodations for wedding guests, family gatherings, and retreats

ST. CHARLES, MO, UNITED STATES, October 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shire Lane Estate, the newly rebranded eight-acre upscale event campus in New Town at St. Charles, has opened its house — Shire Lane Guest House — for overnight bookings. The 4-bedroom, 2.5-bath farmhouse with bonus loft, now listed on Airbnb and NTx Connect, gives guests a rare opportunity to stay directly on the grounds of the historic estate, surrounded by private gardens, mature landscaping, and winding walkways. Adding to the experience, Shire Lane Guest House is just steps away from New Town's lakes, parks, and restaurants.

Located at 3516 Shire Lane in St.

Charles, MO, Shire Lane Guest House has four bedrooms and an additional loft-style bonus room with two queen beds and estate views. The one-of-a-kind retreat in the heart of New Town features a fully equipped kitchen with large island seating, multiple dining and living areas, self-check-in, and a three-car garage with additional on-site parking.

The launch marks the next phase in Shire Lane Estate's transformation from a 100-year-old farm property into a year-round destination for weddings and wedding parties. The lush property is also perfect for family gatherings, corporate retreats, and memorable weekend escapes.

Shire Lane Estate blends the charm of New Town with the privacy of a country estate. The expansive home is the centerpiece of a multi-use commercial campus focused on weddings, events, retreats, and community programming.

“Opening Shire Lane Guest House to overnight visitors is an evolution of this beautiful property that we’re thrilled to share,” said Trish Dinkins, Owner and Operator of Shire Lane Estate. “Having lived in this community for 19 years, I’ve driven past this farmhouse thousands of times, and now we get to invite people to actually stay here and wake up on the grounds, walk the gardens, and be part of the estate’s story.”

“Listing Shire Lane Guest House on NTxConnect allows us to extend the estate’s hospitality beyond single-day events,” said Brett O’Daniell, Director of Operations at Shire Lane Estate. “It’s a natural complement to what we’re already building here. Wedding parties can stay on-site, families can extend a weekend visit, and guests get a true sense of the estate rather than just passing through for a function.”
