

Influential Women Podcast on Spotify Features Accomplished Women Leaders Across Business, Entrepreneurship, and Media

ST. PETERSBURG, FL, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Influential Women Podcast on Spotify continues to bring listeners conversations with accomplished women who are making an impact across business, entrepreneurship, media, healthcare, finance, real estate, technology, and professional leadership.

Hosted by Jodie O'Brien, the podcast provides a platform for founders, CEOs, executives, entrepreneurs, bestselling authors, physicians, investors, and industry leaders to share the experiences, challenges, and defining moments that have shaped their careers.

Recent guests have included Kirsten Jordan, nationally recognized real estate expert and television personality; Kari Wells, entrepreneur, philanthropist, and television personality; Keni Silva, entrepreneur and business leader; Stacy Ryan, CEO of School of Rock; Neha Kumar, founder and entrepreneur; Dr. Jarret Manning, physician and healthcare executive; and numerous accomplished women representing industries across the United States.

Each episode explores the professional journeys behind successful careers, covering topics including leadership, entrepreneurship, business growth, innovation, resilience, communication, personal branding, and the lessons learned while building organizations and leading teams.

"The Influential Women Podcast is about more than celebrating accomplishments," said the Influential Women editorial team. "It's about sharing the stories, experiences, and insights that can encourage and educate the next generation of leaders."

The podcast has become an extension of the broader Influential Women editorial platform, which also includes magazine features, executive profiles, thought leadership articles, and professional interviews designed to highlight accomplished women and their contributions across a wide range of industries.

New episodes are released regularly and are available on Spotify, where listeners can hear candid conversations with women whose ideas, leadership, and experiences continue to shape business and professional communities.
