

Phillips Law Group Attorney Montana Thompson Secures $1.5M Settlement for Flagstaff Client in I-40 Truck Crash

Settlement provides recovery for an Arizona client who suffered life-threatening injuries after a commercial truck struck his vehicle.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phillips Law Group attorney Montana Thompson secured a $1,500,000 settlement on behalf of a Flagstaff-area client who suffered life-threatening injuries in a commercial truck collision on Interstate 40.

Our client had already experienced a frightening situation when icy road conditions forced his vehicle off the highway," Thompson said. "He was waiting for help when his life changed in an instant."

The crash occurred along westbound I-40 near Buffalo Range Road, east of Flagstaff. The client's pickup truck slid off the roadway because of icy conditions. After calling for roadside assistance, the client remained inside the vehicle while waiting for a tow truck.

While other motorists were also stopped along the roadway, a semi-truck struck the client's pickup, leaving him trapped inside the vehicle. Emergency responders extricated the client, who was transported by helicopter to Flagstaff Medical Center and underwent lifesaving surgery for significant injuries.

"Our client had already experienced a frightening situation when icy road conditions forced his vehicle off the highway," Thompson said. "He was waiting for help when his life changed in an instant. This settlement provides important financial support as he continues moving forward from the physical, emotional and financial impact of this crash."

Thompson and the Phillips Law Group legal team worked to investigate the collision, document the client's damages and pursue accountability from the responsible parties. The client's identity, specific medical information and additional terms of the settlement will remain confidential.

"Commercial drivers and trucking companies have an obligation to operate safely, especially during dangerous winter conditions," Thompson added. "This case demonstrates why careful investigation and strong advocacy are so important when someone suffers catastrophic injuries through no fault of their own."
