

Gold, Silver, Rare Earth & Copper Companies Present at July 22-23 Virtual Investor Conference

From Gold and Silver Explorers to Critical Materials Producers

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- B2i Digital, Inc. invites investors to its latest Featured Conference: the Precious Metals & Critical Minerals Virtual Investor Conference, taking place Wednesday and Thursday, July 22-23, 2026.

B2i Digital, as the Official Marketing Partner, brings the two-day event into its ecosystem. A distribution and media engine drives a qualified audience to the presentations and the meetings that follow.

Demand for gold, silver, rare earth elements, copper, and other critical minerals is being driven by electrification, advanced manufacturing, and supply chain security.”

David Shapiro, CEO of B2i Digital

The lineup spans gold exploration and development, silver, rare earth elements, copper, phosphate and battery materials, potash and lithium, advanced alloys, critical materials recycling, and royalties. Presenting companies join from markets across the United States, Canada, and Australia.

Each company has 30 minutes for a live presentation and Q&A. One-on-one meetings can be requested through the conference platform, and replays are posted to the B2i Digital and OTC Markets YouTube channels.

Before, during, and after both days, B2i amplifies the event across its platform. That puts these resource companies in front of more than 1.7 million retail and institutional market participants. It is the same visibility engine that has carried presenting companies From Marketing to MeetingsSM at more than 120 investor conferences.

“Demand for gold, silver, rare earth elements, copper, and other critical minerals is being driven by electrification, advanced manufacturing, and supply chain security. B2i Digital owns and operates the most powerful investor network in the capital markets, and for two days we point it straight at the companies exploring, developing, and supplying these essential resources. Investors can meet the management teams directly and we welcome them to reach their own conclusions,” said David Shapiro, Chief Executive Officer of B2i Digital.

More than 30 resource companies from the U.S., Canada, and Australia will present live at B2i Digital's Featured Conference, with investor Q&A and one-on-one meeting opportunities.
