

Woody Auction will hold a Multi-Genre Antique Auction on Saturday, August 22nd, online and live in Douglass, Kansas

Collectors will find a great selection of cut glass, art glass, pattern glass, primitives, silver, pottery, lamps, plated amberina, Belleek, Quezal & furniture.

DOUGLASS, KS, UNITED STATES, July 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Woody Auction will officially kick off the active fall season with a full lineup of in-person events, beginning with an outstanding Multi-Genre Antique Auction on Saturday, August 22nd, featuring more than 340 lots of exceptional quality antiques, as well as consignments pulled from 18 curated collections located across the United States.

The auction will be held online and live in the Woody auction hall located at 130 East 3rd Street in Douglass, starting at 9:30am Central Time. "No matter what treasures you're searching for, you're bound to discover something special in this auction," said Jason Woody of Woody Auction. "We invite everyone to browse the catalog, find their favorites, and join us for another exciting Woody Auction event."

Collectors will find an impressive selection of cut glass, art glass, pattern glass, primitives, silver, pottery, lamps, plated amberina, Belleek, Quezal, furniture, and more. "Whether you collect vases, bowls, platters, jardinieres, brides baskets, ewers, trays, chocolate and coffee pots, goblets, perfume bottles, hatpins, humidors, pitchers, salt cellars, tankards, flatware, or other fine antiques, this auction offers something for nearly every collecting interest," Woody said.

An expected headliner lot is this 100-piece sterling silver flatware set by Reed and Barton in the Francis I pattern, having a silver chest with lid and two drawers. Estimate: $9,000-$12,000

The furniture selection is equally impressive, featuring partner's and roll-top desks; library, parlor, and dining tables; hall trees; china cabinets; and a remarkable hand-carved decorative bear bench that is sure to be a conversation piece. As always at Woody Auction, there are no reserves. There is also no buyer's premium for those in attendance (when paying with cash or check). Collectors should make plans today to attend in person or bid "live" online.

One of the sale's expected headliners is a 100-piece sterling silver flatware set by Reed and Barton in the Francis I pattern. The set comes with a quality silver chest with lid and two drawers. The solid sterling items weigh 3750 grams, while items with sterling handles and stainless-steel bodies weigh 1800 grams. The total weight of the flatware is 5550 grams, or 28.2 pounds. The set, from a private collection out of Kansas, has an estimate of $9,000-$12,000.

A historical two-piece flowerpot and pedestal commonly referred to as the Dewey Jardiniere by the Wheeling Pottery Company and carrying the mark of the firm, is a beautiful cobalt blue with gold highlights. A presentation on the top of the pedestal reads, "Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Schmidt From Members Wheeling Lodge No. 28, Elks Head B.P.O.E. Christmas 1900." The pieces together are 36 inches tall (a rare size) and weigh 65.12 pounds. The estimate is $4,000-$6,000.
