Guests can expect the same warm, welcoming spirit that made the May Peonies version a standout. The events are designed for anyone looking to slow down for a morning, enjoy the countryside, and leave with something beautiful they made themselves.

“

We can't wait to welcome everyone back for Wildflowers in August and Dahlias in October—each one is a celebration of the season and all the little moments that make farm life so special.”

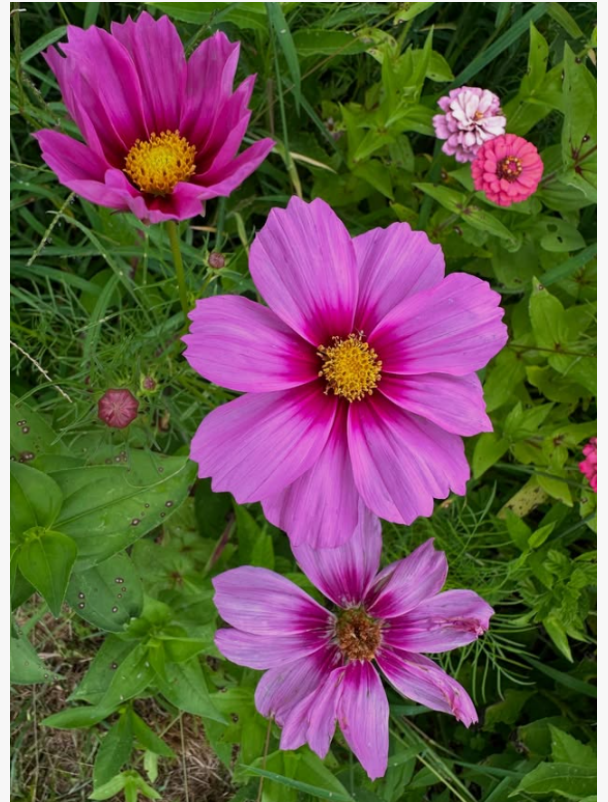

Carolyn Cutshall

“The Peonies morning in May was such a joyful reminder of how much people love gathering on the farm—making something with their hands, sharing treats, and meeting donkeys up close,” said Carolyn Cutshall, Owner at Short Hill Springs. “We can't wait to welcome everyone back for Wildflowers in August and Dahlias in October—each one is a celebration of the season and all the little moments that make farm life so special.”
