Downtown Memphis Commercial Building For Auction

Seven Hills Auctions, a national real estate auction firm, today announced its August Auction Showcase, an online-only event featuring 28 properties being sold by direct order of super regional banks, private equity funds, and other highly motivated sellers. Bidding is open now at 7hauctions.com and concludes August 18, 2026, at 12:00 p.m. EDT.

The portfolio spans eight states — Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas — and includes single-family homes, a 16-lot townhome package offered with no reserve, commercial and retail buildings, a restaurant building, a former convenience store and carwash, and development-ready land parcels. Most of the properties are bank owned.

“This auction gives buyers rare, direct access to a nationwide inventory of assets that banks and institutions have ordered to be sold now,” said Buddy Lee, President of Seven Hills Auctions. “Whether someone is looking for a single-family home, a commercial building, or a bulk lot package, there is real opportunity in this lineup, and the urgency behind these sales works in the buyer's favor.”

“Our online-only format makes it simple to bid from anywhere, and with properties spread across eight states, there's something here for buyers with very different goals," added Lee. "We encourage anyone interested to register early, do their due diligence, and get in the auction before bidding closes on August 18."

The auction carries a 10% buyer's premium, and broker compensation is available for qualified, licensed real estate brokers. Interested buyers can view full property details, due diligence materials, and register to bid at 7hauctions.com or by calling 800-742-9165.
