

TANO JONES REVELRY BRINGS STORYTELLER SOUL MUSIC AND COMMUNITY IMPACT TO EVERY STOP ON THEIR SUMMER TOUR

The band's 'Soup and Seeds' initiative partners with local food banks to help feed communities while growing hope

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, July 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Detroit-born Americana and soul-rock collective Tano Jones Revelry is hitting the road this summer, bringing its signature blend of heartfelt storytelling, soulful melodies, and uplifting live performances to audiences across the Midwest and East Coast. More than a concert tour, each stop will also serve as an opportunity to strengthen the local community through the band's growing Soup and Seeds outreach initiative, which partners with food banks and nonprofit organization in every market they visit.

Rhythm. Life. Melodies. Tales. Harmony. Love. These are the elements that define Tano Jones Revelry. Led by singer, songwriter, guitarist, and producer Tano Jones, the band has built a reputation for creating music rooted in authenticity, hope, and human connection. With a six-string in hand, a well-worn hat overhead, and stories inspired by real life, Tano Jones Revelry delivers songs that encourage listeners to embrace life's journey, dream bigger, and find common ground through music.

"Every city we visit has its own story, and we're honored to become a small part of it," stated Tano Jones.

Riding a wave of national and international momentum, the band's debut album Spinning North has surpassed 40 million streams worldwide. Standout singles including "Daisy", "Light It," and the breakout hit "What About Me," have received airplay on more than 125 radio stations across North America and internationally, reaching audiences from Los Angeles to New York and from London to Spain.

While the music continues to reach new listeners, the band's commitment to giving back remains equally important. Through Soup and Seeds, Tano Jones Revelry partners with food banks in every tour market, encouraging fans to donate, volunteers, and advocate for organizations fighting food insecurities. Beyond making financial contributions, the band also supports each partner through marketing initiatives and on-air advertising campaigns designed to raise awareness and expand community impact.

Jones states, "Music has always been about bringing people together and through our Soup and Seeds initiative, we're able to extend the connection beyond the stage. If we can leave a community a little stronger than we found it, then, we've accomplished something meaningful."
