As Controller, Francisco will lead GreenLight.ai's accounting and financial operations while helping strengthen the financial infrastructure that supports the company's continued global expansion. His priorities include strengthening financial reporting, enhancing operational controls, improving scalability, and supporting GreenLight's long-term growth strategy.

"Our mission has always been to make it simple for enterprises and talent organizations to compliantly engage the world's contingent workforce," said Jason Posel, CEO of GreenLight.ai. "As we continue to grow, we're investing in exceptional people who can help us build a world-class company. Francisco brings the experience, discipline, and leadership to strengthen our financial foundation as we scale."

GreenLight.ai continues to invest in its leadership team as demand grows for enterprise-grade contingent workforce infrastructure. The company enables organizations in more than 130 countries to engage and manage employees, contractors, freelancers, and global talent through a single compliance-first platform.

"Joining GreenLight.ai is an exciting opportunity," said Francisco Arambula, CPA. "The company has built an impressive platform in a rapidly growing market. I'm looking forward to helping strengthen the financial operations that will support the next stage of growth."
