

International Recording Artist Clarissa makes waves with Summer Tour & Hot Releases

Clarissa The Sassy British Soul Singer is pushing the boundaries and making moves

MILWAUKEE, WI, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- — Independent international recording artist Clarissa is launching an ambitious nationwide campaign featuring new music releases every two weeks while expanding her live touring schedule across the Midwest and Hampton Roads, Virginia. Upcoming original releases include Baby Boy, Wasting Time, Safe, and Algorithm Blues, a contemporary folk-blues record exploring authenticity, self-love and the impact of technology on modern life.

"I've never wanted to be boxed into one genre," says Clarissa. "Every song tells a different story. Whether it's R&B;, Hip-Hop, Soul or Folk-Blues, I want listeners to feel something real."

Before heading east, Clarissa continues her Midwest momentum with appearances at Untitled Supper Club (Chicago), the 11th Granville Blues & R&B; Festival (Milwaukee), Shakers Cigar Bar (Milwaukee), another performance at Shakers on August 1, and the HOPES Center Festival of Hope 2026 at Buca's Bar & Grill in Racine on August 2. The Hampton Roads tour showcases premier destinations including Lucé Secondo in Chesapeake, where elevated Italian cuisine is paired with exceptional live music, and Privé in Newport News, a stylish dining and entertainment destination blending contemporary cuisine, handcrafted cocktails and live performances into one complete experience.

The tour also includes Admiral's Lounge at Rivers Casino Portsmouth, multiple appearances at Lucé Secondo, Clarissa – The Adele Experience in the Raleigh Room at The Cavalier Resort, late-night performances in the Hunt Room, and Saté – The New American Experience.
