delivered 420,000 vehicles, ranking first among Chinese premium automotive brands in the domestic luxury vehicle market and reshaping a market historically dominated by traditional luxury automakers.

SERES' continued presence on the Fortune China 500 list for multiple consecutive years reflects strong recognition from authoritative institutions, investors and the market of the company's comprehensive capabilities. Looking ahead, SERES will continue to expand its global footprint, enhance brand value and further strengthen its position as a benchmark global luxury intelligent vehicle brand.

About SERES Group

Founded in 1986, SERES is a technology-driven company with new energy vehicles (NEVs) at the core of its business. Listed in Shanghai and Hong Kong, SERES is also recognized among China's Top 500 Enterprises. The company specializes in the R&D, manufacturing, sales and services of new energy vehicles, as well as core electric powertrain technologies.

The name SERES is derived from the ancient Greek word for the "Land of Silk", symbolizing the East, sophistication and luxury. Inspired by the spirit of the Silk Road, SERES is committed to building a premium automotive brand that brings Chinese innovation to the global stage.
