

Patriot Select to Strengthen Independent Agent Partnerships at LAAIA's 56th Annual Convention

Florida-based property insurer will meet with agency leaders and explore opportunities to support agents and homeowners across the state

ST. PETERSBURG, FL, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Patriot Select Property and Casualty Insurance Company will participate in the Latin American Association of Insurance Agencies' 56th Annual Convention, taking place July 30 through August 1 at the JW Marriott Marco Island Beach Resort. The convention brings together independent insurance agents, carriers and other industry professionals to exchange ideas, discuss developments affecting Florida's insurance marketplace and build relationships that support agents and the consumers they serve. LAAIA represents member agencies responsible for more than $3 billion in insurance premiums throughout Florida. This year's convention theme, "Protecting Tomorrow," will focus on collaboration, innovation and strategic partnerships as the industry responds to changing consumer needs, emerging technologies and an evolving insurance environment.
