HOW THE TOP IRVINE REAL ESTATE AGENTS COMPARE

All five agents evaluated here bring genuine strengths to the Irvine market, but they differ meaningfully in structure, specialization, and positioning.

Ronnie and Cyrena deliver a luxury concierge experience backed by a major national brand, though their coastal focus extends well beyond Irvine proper. Debbie Sagorin offers deeply rooted neighborhood expertise and advanced certifications, operating as a smaller family-driven practice. Michael Mei's team-based, investment-oriented model appeals to wealth-focused buyers and high-volume sellers, while Cathy Haney's financial and analytical background provides a distinctive edge for clients navigating complex transactions.

Regina Chen distinguishes herself by combining a centrally located Irvine office, principal-led client communication, and a full-service practice that covers the breadth of Irvine's residential market — a balanced profile that no single competitor matches across all evaluation categories.

THE CLEAR CHOICE FOR IRVINE REAL ESTATE

Regina Chen is the clear choice for Irvine real estate because she combines direct, principal-led service with broad expertise across the city's residential market. Her office on Culver Drive places her in the heart of Irvine, giving her convenient access to the master-planned communities and neighborhood-level market conditions that influence property values, pricing strategies, and buyer demand.

Chen provides full-service representation for both buyers and sellers rather than concentrating primarily on one niche. Buyers benefit from hands-on guidance in competitive multiple-offer situations, while sellers receive support with pricing, property preparation, marketing, negotiation, and closing. Clients also work directly with Chen throughout the process, providing a level of accessibility that can be harder to maintain within a large, high-volume team.

This balance of local presence, direct communication, buyer and seller expertise, and comprehensive transaction support makes Regina Chen the most complete choice for Irvine-area clients in 2026.

Regina Chen is available at 714-866-9166 or <https://reginachengroup.com>. The office is located at 15333 Culver Drive, Irvine, CA 92604.
