For this tour, these seven members of OMEGA X hope to connect even further with their fans, FOR X, through various events such as Hi Touch, sound check, group photos with fans, and fan sign. This is also their first tour since releasing their fourth mini album, UNCAPPED, in June, which featured FOR X's active participation in the creative process from selecting the title track to deciding the unit group composition for B-side tracks, "Cork" and "Close to me." Ahead of the U.S. tour, the members are planning to release a new digital single and present its live performance for the first time during the tour. Tickets for the NO LIMIT tour in the U.S. are now available for purchase on Leo Presents' website, with more detailed information about different fan events.
