

Petition Asks Museum of Broadway to Recognize Jewish Contributions

The Museum of Broadway in New York celebrates cultural contributions to Broadway except from the most essential one, Jewish culture.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A petition has been launched asking the Museum of Broadway in New York to include information about Jewish contributions to Broadway and the influence of Yiddish theatre and Jewish immigrants.

According to the petition, the museum's exhibits discuss the contributions of several cultural groups but do not identify Jewish culture, Jewish immigrants, or Yiddish theatre as influences on Broadway. The petition asks the museum to add material addressing those subjects.

The initiative seeks to expand the presentation of the cultural communities and traditions that contributed to Broadway's development.

It's often difficult to fight antisemitism, but there is one thing you can do that's easy and will make a difference. Sign this petition.”
