

Living Springs Church to Launch in South Hills of Pittsburgh This Fall

New Church Plant Led by Pastors Ben and Alyssa Archer Invites Community to Connect

PITTSBURGH, PA, UNITED STATES, July 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Living Springs Church, a new church plant dedicated to bringing "God's life-giving power to every person and every family," announces its upcoming launch in the South Hills area of Pittsburgh in Fall 2026. Led by Lead Pastors Ben and Alyssa Archer, the church aims to create a welcoming community where individuals and families can experience spiritual growth and meaningful connection.

"There Is More" is more than a tagline for Living Springs—it's the foundational belief that drives the church's mission. The church is being built on the conviction that God has more in store for every person and every family in the South Hills community.

Living Springs Church exists to help people discover that "more" in their lives through authentic community, powerful worship, and practical teaching.

The church is hosting two free Community Social events for residents to meet the pastors, learn about the church's vision, and find their people:

August 1st Community Social

Hear the vision. Eat great food. Find your people.
