

Creator Jenny Solares Earns 2026 Premios Juventud Nomination for Best LOL

The Millie Un Placer creator is recognized by Univision for her impact in digital comedy and Latino culture

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Digital content creator Jenny Solares has been nominated for the 2026 Premios Juventud in the Best LOL category, recognizing her ability to entertain millions through original comedy and authentic storytelling that has resonated with audiences across social media.

Presented by Univision, Premios Juventud celebrates the artists, creators, athletes, and changemakers shaping Latino culture. Solares, based the U.S., joins this year's leading digital personalities, underscoring both the growing influence of creators in entertainment and her ability to connect with audiences across the Americas through comedy.

Known for her relatable humor, engaging personality, and highly shareable content, Jenny has cultivated a loyal community of 4.8 million followers by creating comedy inspired by everyday life and the experiences that connect people across generations and cultures.

"This nomination means so much because it represents the incredible community that has supported me every step of the way," said Jenny Solares. "Creating content has always been about making people laugh and finding joy in everyday moments. To be recognized by Premios Juventud is an honor, and I'm grateful to everyone who watches, shares, and believes in what I do."

Solares is represented by Millie Un Placer, a bespoke creative studio and marketing agency representing a curated roster of high-impact Latino creators and influencers spanning comedy,
