"Louisville has a story unlike any other city, and we wanted to create accommodations that allow guests to become part of that story," said Eamon O'Brien,

Chief Operating Officer of The Galt House Hotel. "Whether you're here to cheer on the Cardinals, experience Derby season, or simply discover our city's rich culture, the Legendary Collection allows guests to connect with the stories, traditions, and people that make Louisville one of the most unique destinations in America."

As the official hotel of University of Louisville Athletics, The Galt House Hotel partnered with the university to create two University of Louisville Football Suites and two University of Louisville Basketball Suites, each designed to celebrate Cardinal traditions and the excitement of game day. Rich red and black accents, locally commissioned artwork, custom memorabilia displays, and elevated finishes create an immersive experience for alumni, fans, and visitors, all just steps from the KFC Yum! Center.

"Louisville is a city that takes tremendous pride in its university, and our fans carry that Cardinal spirit everywhere they go. To see that passion reflected in such a unique and immersive hospitality experience is incredibly exciting," said Lottie Stockwell, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations at the University of Louisville. "The Galt House Hotel has long been a gathering place for Cardinal fans, alumni, and visitors. These suites create a new way for people to connect with the traditions and memories that make Louisville Athletics so special."

Inspired by Kentucky's internationally renowned Thoroughbred tradition, the two Thoroughbred Suites capture the elegance and excitement of horse racing through sophisticated equestrian design, custom artwork, and luxurious finishes that honor one of the Commonwealth's most celebrated industries. The suites offer an elevated retreat for Derby visitors and others seeking to experience Kentucky's rich racing heritage.

"Every design element was intentionally selected to celebrate Louisville," said Holly King, Executive Assistant to the President & CEO at The Galt House Hotel. "We wanted the suites to celebrate the rich history and culture that has shaped Kentucky. From locally commissioned artwork to custom finishes inspired by Cardinals Athletics and Kentucky's horse racing heritage, each suite tells a story that is both historically significant and uniquely Louisville."

Guests entering the suites will discover dramatic murals by Louisville-based artist Riley Gregor of Straight Edge Creative, custom décor, expansive living areas, premium kitchens, waterfront views, and carefully selected details celebrating Louisville's culture, history, and traditions.

The Legendary Collection is part of The Galt House Hotel's continued investment in enhancing Louisville's hospitality and tourism experience by creating accommodations that reflect the city's identity and turning local institutions into exciting places to stay. These enhancements will encourage visitors to extend their stay while exploring local attractions, including Churchill Downs, the KFC Yum! Center, and L&N Federal Credit Union Stadium. Guests can also enjoy access to the hotel's seven restaurants and bars, full-service spa, fitness center, and other signature amenities.

Additional themed accommodations, including the Muhammad Ali Suite and Four Roses Suite, are slated to be completed by the end of the year. Due to the limited number of suites, availability may be restricted during peak weekends and special events. Themed suites are available to book at galthouse.com.
