

Food for the Soul Earns 2026 Best of South Carolina Award

CAMDEN, SC, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Food for the Soul, a Christ-like ministry providing meals, shelter, and support for those in need across Kershaw County, has been named a 2026 Best of South Carolina Award winner. The recognition honors the organization's steady, compassionate work serving individuals and families facing hunger, homelessness, crisis, or uncertainty.

Food for the Soul provides practical help rooted in dignity and care. Its mission, "Your Support Makes It Possible to Provide Meals, Shelter, and Hope for Kershaw County," reflects the daily work of offering not only food and shelter, but also a safe place for people to begin taking next steps.

The organization operates an emergency shelter year-round, 24 hours a day, giving guests a safe place to stay while they work toward stability. Residents may stay up to 90 days, with staff helping assess needs and connecting them with support. Food for the Soul also assists stranded travelers, recognizing that crisis can happen quickly and that help often matters most in the moment it is needed.

"We are honored to receive this award and grateful for the community that makes this work possible," said a Food for the Soul team member. "Every meal served, every bed offered, and every person welcomed reflects the heart of this ministry and the generosity of Kershaw County."

The 2026 Best of South Carolina Award reflects Food for the Soul's role as a vital community resource. As needs continue across the region, the organization remains focused on showing up with meals, shelter, and hope for neighbors who need support.
