

Garris Jewelers Earns 2026 Best of South Carolina Award

LANCASTER, SC, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Garris Jewelers, a full-service Lancaster jewelry store known for in-house repairs, custom design, and trusted guidance, has earned a 2026 Best of South Carolina Award. The recognition marks the company's third consecutive honor, following wins in 2024 and 2025, and reflects more than four decades of service to customers celebrating milestones and preserving meaningful pieces.

Since 1980, Garris Jewelers has helped customers choose diamonds, colored stones, gifts, and one-of-a-kind designs while also handling the practical work that keeps treasured items in use. Jewelry repairs are completed in house, allowing customers to know where their pieces are and who is caring for them. The store also provides watch repairs, pearl re-stringing, eyeglass repairs, and custom design services that balance appearance with long-term durability. That range makes the shop a practical resource for everything from urgent fixes to future heirlooms designed from a customer's own idea.

"Jewelry is often connected to a person, a memory, or a moment that cannot be replaced," said a member of the Garris Jewelers team. "Our responsibility is to treat every piece with care, give customers honest advice, and make the experience enjoyable from the first conversation to the finished result."

That approach supports the company's guiding promise, "The Brilliance you Deserve," while keeping craftsmanship, value, and personal service at the center of its work. As Garris Jewelers looks ahead, the team plans to continue serving Lancaster-area families with dependable repairs, thoughtful design, and guidance customers can trust.
