

JonBie Maison Earns 2026 Best of South Carolina Regional Award

DAUFUSKIE ISLAND, SC, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JonBie Maison, a vacation rental company helping travelers experience the quieter side of South Carolina's coast, has received a 2026 Best of South Carolina Regional Award. The recognition honors the company's thoughtful approach to island hospitality and its work making Daufuskie Island's car-free lifestyle more accessible to couples, families, and groups.

Operating under the slogan "Where Luxury Meets Wilderness," JonBie Maison offers a handpicked collection of cottages and villas on or near the beach. Its one- to six-bedroom properties range from romantic retreats to spacious group accommodations, with oceanfront and pet-friendly options available. Rather than simply booking a home, the company helps guests understand the details of visiting an island without a bridge, including ferry transportation, arrival planning, and navigating Daufuskie by golf cart.

"Daufuskie Island offers something increasingly rare: the chance to slow down, reconnect, and enjoy the coast without crowds, traffic, or high-rise resorts," said a JonBie Maison representative. "We want every guest to feel prepared before arriving and completely at ease once they arrive. This award reflects the care our team puts into creating that experience."

The 2026 Best of South Carolina Regional Award recognizes JonBie Maison's ability to pair comfortable accommodations with practical local guidance. Guests can spend less time worrying about logistics and more time enjoying white-sand beaches, ancient oaks, island-inspired cuisine, ocean breezes, and sunsets that quickly become part of the daily schedule.

JonBie Maison plans to continue connecting travelers with distinctive Daufuskie Island stays while preserving the relaxed character that makes the destination memorable. For the company, the recognition reinforces a simple goal: helping visitors discover paradise beyond the mainland.
