

South Carolina Pediatric Alliance Named 2026 Best of South Carolina Award Winner

COLUMBIA, SC, UNITED STATES, September 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The South Carolina Pediatric Alliance has been named a 2026 Best of South Carolina Award winner, recognizing its commitment to providing comprehensive pediatric healthcare for families across the Midlands. With ten clinic locations operating under the Palmetto Pediatrics and Sandhills Pediatrics brands, the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance has become a trusted healthcare resource for children from infancy through adolescence.

The award reflects the organization's broad approach to pediatric care and its focus on supporting children and families through every stage of development. The South Carolina Pediatric Alliance offers a wide range of services, including comprehensive newborn care, prenatal and postpartum support, breastfeeding and lactation consultations, behavioral health services, asthma education, counseling, sports physicals, care coordination for children with disabilities, 24/7 nurse triage, and on-site rapid lab testing.

Serving communities throughout Irmo, Lexington, Blythewood, Northeast Columbia, Downtown Columbia, and West Columbia, The South Carolina Pediatric Alliance combines the resources of a large healthcare network with the personalized attention families value in their local pediatric practice. Each clinic maintains its own team and expertise while remaining connected through a shared mission of patient-centered care.

"We are honored to receive the 2026 Best of South Carolina Award," said a representative of the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance. "This recognition belongs to our physicians, nurses, staff members, and the families who trust us with their children's care every day. Our goal has always been to provide accessible, high-quality healthcare that supports children as they grow and thrive."

As demand for comprehensive pediatric services continues to increase, the South Carolina Pediatric Alliance remains focused on expanding access to care while maintaining the personal relationships that have defined its approach. The 2026 Best of South Carolina Award serves as both a recognition of the organization's impact and a reminder of its ongoing commitment to delivering trusted care for every child across the Midlands.
