DUNOON, SCOTLAND, July 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- YOU WROTE HALLELUJAH written by Michael Andrew Storm & Meg McAndrew, produced by Germany-based Alan Vukelic and by Ferdinand Rennie. (Storm Music Publishing, Fabscots Ltd. music publishing). It is written as a consideration of how and why songwriters & composers create the songs they write.

Of course, HALLELUJAH was written by Leonard Cohen, and the lyrics discuss his struggle with his religious beliefs. John Newton, the composer who wrote AMAZING GRACE, made his fortune in the slave trade, converted to Christianity late in life and struggled with the guilt of what he had done. These two stories are combined along with feelings about how songwriters draw from their own experience while writing.

Austrian-born, British singer FERDINAND RENNIE lives on the west coast of Scotland. His music career has had several highlights, including TV appearances in ORF (AUSTRIAN BROADCASTING) AUSTRIAN ELIMINATION for THE EUROVISION SONG CONTEST,
