MANTUA, OH, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspired by the warm autumn color of the French Musquée de Provence, Larder & Vine today introduced the Harvest Pumpkin Dutch Oven, the latest addition to its collection of enameled cast iron cookware.

Meet Harvest, Larder & Vine's warm autumn color inspired by the French Musquée de Provence.

Admired for its distinctive autumn tones, the Musquée de Provence has long been appreciated by gardeners, chefs, and home cooks. The Harvest Pumpkin Dutch Oven draws its color from this celebrated variety, bringing the warmth of the fall harvest into the kitchen.

"The Musquée de Provence was the inspiration from the very beginning," said Jamie Morehead, Founder of Larder & Vine. "We loved its color and wanted to create a Dutch oven that captured that same feeling of fall."

Just as distinctive as its color is its generous 5.5-quart capacity—a size widely recognized as the preferred choice for everyday cooking, from soups and stews to bread, braises, and family meals—making it stand out from the smaller pumpkin Dutch ovens available today.

Crafted from enameled cast iron, it delivers the even heating and heat retention that have made Dutch ovens a kitchen staple for generations. Its durable enamel requires no seasoning, while compatibility with all cooktops and a 500°F oven-safe rating make it perfect for preparing the meals that bring people together throughout the fall season.

Available now with a suggested retail price of $149.99, the Harvest Pumpkin Dutch Oven can be purchased through Amazon, Walmart, and Larder & Vine.
