

Naylor Architect Inc. Strengthens National Practice with Addition of Tushar Negi as Principal Architect

Toronto's go-to architect for national restaurant brands adds a new principal to fuel continued growth across Canada.

TORONTO, CANADA, July 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Naylor Architect Inc., a leading architecture firm in branded spaces and commercial environments, has been behind standout projects such as Queen's Harbour and multiple Moxie's locations in its 25+ years of experience, more than 2,000 completed projects, and 45+ recurring national clients. The Toronto-based firm today announced that Tushar Negi has joined as Principal Architect. Specializing in restaurant architecture, branded environments, franchise rollouts, and QSR and hospitality design for clients including Burger King, McDonald's, KFC, The Keg, Moxies, Earls, A&W, and Wendy's, and licensed across nine Canadian provinces, Naylor Architect is one of Canada's most trusted commercial restaurant architects for national brands requiring design efficiency, prototype adaptation, and on-time project delivery. Founder Chris Naylor remains actively involved, continuing to lead select client relationships and business development.

to grow into new markets, while I stay focused on the client relationships and standards that built this firm over 25 years."

Negi joins Naylor Architect with 13+ years of experience across architecture and development. As project architect at WZMH Architects, he led commercial and mixed-use projects for major institutional landlords and developers including BentallGreenOak, Kingsett Capital, Ivanhoe Cambridge, Oxford Properties, QuadReal, Cadillac Fairview, and First Capital, later serving as Manager of Design and Product Development at Marlin Spring Developments. In 2025, he founded THINK Architecture Inc. He is also co-founder and Executive Director of SOSA Canada (Society of South Asian Architects), a not-for-profit network of more than 120 professionals with chapters in Toronto and Vancouver.

"Chris built something rare — 25 years of relationships and work across retail, restaurant, hospitality, commercial, and automotive, serving national brands and developers from coast to coast," said Tushar Negi, Principal Architect at Naylor Architect Inc. "My job is to build on that."

Naylor Architect's core strength remains franchise rollout and multi-site architecture: adapting prototypes, managing tenant improvement permitting across jurisdictions, and delivering consistent execution at scale for national QSR brands, casual dining chains, franchise operators, and commercial developers across Canada. The firm is also expanding its portfolio into multi-unit residential development, drawing on Negi's established relationships with institutional and private developers active in this sector. Naylor will continue to work alongside Negi on major accounts through the transition, drawing on 25 years of client relationships as the firm's foundation for its next chapter.
