Merit of the chanting dedicated to world peace

Quoting the ancient ideal of “Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam” meaning The Whole World Is One Family, Sri Swamiji reminded devotees that Sanātana Dharma inspires humanity to transcend differences through mutual respect, love, service, righteousness, and universal goodwill.

“The values of the Bhagavad Gita belong not to one nation, one faith, or one community. They belong to all humanity. Let every home be filled with peace, every heart with wisdom, and every nation with harmony.”

Multiple States Offered Proclamations

The spiritual merit earned through this collective recitation was dedicated to the peace and prosperity of all nations.

“

May the merit of this Bhagavad Gita Parayana bring peace to the world, harmony among nations, and inspire us to live as one family with gratitude, compassion, and respect.”

Sri Swamiji

Special prayers were offered for the continued progress of America, India, and every nation of the world, reaffirming the universal message of peace and human unity.

The event concluded with the timeless Vedic prayer:
