The new facility refinances and increases PRN Funding’s existing line of credit by fifty percent and will be used to support ongoing growth in its portfolio, provide additional working capital flexibility, and further enhance service to its clients nationwide.

“We appreciate the continued support of Fifth Third Bank as our financing partner,” said Philip Cohen, Managing Member of PRN Funding, LLC. “This expanded facility provides us with additional capacity to fund our clients’ working capital needs and to pursue future growth opportunities as we expand our geographic reach in our core markets.”
