Canine Revolution Dog Training, Best Dog Trainer in Summerville Journal Scene 2026 Readers' Choice Awards, a community-voted honor in the Charleston Lowcountry.

SUMMERVILLE, SC, UNITED STATES, August 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Canine Revolution Dog Training has been named Best Dog Trainer in Summerville through the Journal Scene 2026 Readers' Choice Awards, a Post and Courier publication. The recognition is community-voted, decided by readers rather than an industry panel. Founded by Citadel alumnus and U.S. Navy veteran Chad Singer, the academy trains dogs and their owners across Summerville, Charleston, Mount Pleasant, and the greater Lowcountry. Canine Revolution can be reached at (843) 376-6452.

The Readers' Choice title is decided entirely by the community it recognizes. Summerville Journal Scene subscribers cast the votes, meaning the award reflects the direct experience of local dog owners rather than the judgment of a panel or committee. For Canine Revolution, a business built on measurable results and owner accountability, that distinction carries particular weight.

Canine Revolution operates a private 20-acre educational Academy in Dorchester, with a dog training team of over 20 professionals, serving as the premier dog training campus for clients across the entire Lowcountry region, not one town alone. The recognition from Summerville readers underscores a regional footprint that extends into Mount Pleasant, Charleston, West

Ashley, Daniel Island, and beyond, wherever owners are working to solve leash reactivity, build off-leash reliability, or prepare a dog for daily life in high-distraction settings like Waterfront Park or a Daniel Island patio.

Chad Singer founded the academy after a career path that ran from The Citadel to the U.S. Navy to Police K9 training, a background that shapes the academy's approach to structure, communication, and follow-through. That approach is available to clients through several formats. The flagship offering is the 6-week Elite Board & Train immersion, a residential program built to produce Public Access Reliability and Social Neutrality in dogs facing real-world distractions. For owners with different needs or timelines, Canine Revolution also offers a 4-week residential option, private in-person coaching, and a Virtual Training Academy that extends the same training principles to clients outside the Lowcountry.

This award means something because it came from the people who actually live in the local community. This is an amazing achievement that the entire Canine Revolution Dog Training team can be proud of.”

Singer is also the host of the Pack Talk Podcast, which reaches more than 48,000 listeners with direct, no-nonsense training guidance, and he is the author of "The Ultimate Leash Training Manual." Both platforms reflect the same philosophy that runs through the training programs at the academy: clear expectations, consistent structure, and dogs treated as lifestyle assets rather than problems to manage.
