

Author Edward Nadel Announces the Release of Children's Book Augie's Adventures in the City

A Delightful New Children's Tale of Curiosity, Wonder, and Adventures

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Augie's Adventures in the City, a new children's book by debut author Edward Nadel and illustrated by Tzvi Kogan, introduces young readers to a world of curiosity, imagination, and friendship. Published for children ages 5 to 9, the first book in this series is designed to capture the magic of childhood discovery.

About the Book

Meet Augie, a friendly little brown turtle who shares his life in the forest with Defer and Hotie the donkey twins, Harvey the inchworm, and Tyler his whistling cousin. One sunny day, Augie's slow and steady wandering leads him right into a big adventure as he crawls into a deep garden hole! Just when he thinks he is stuck, a kind boy named Josh helps him out. Follow Augie as he leaves his cozy home for an unforgettable trip to the lively world of New York City with his new friend Josh. It's a heartwarming story about how a little turtle can become the very best of friends with big humans, no matter how different they are.
