Bibiana Brymer, Global Account Manager

“My time here at CTSI-Global has been a wonderful journey right up to this day! Wonderful team, wonderful managers, and my goal is to continue expanding my knowledge so that I can grow professionally with our company for many more years to come,” said Dana Simon, Production Support, marking 10 years.

CTSI-Global has transformed tremendously over its nearly 70-year history. Elizabeth Nolan, VP of Strategic Planning, has had a front row seat to that growth over the past 20: “I am proud to be a part of CTSI-Global as we raise the bar in the logistics space.”

“From starting with the company as a Freight Auditor to becoming a Senior Audit Specialist, I owe it all to my mentors and audit teams. We learn and grow together as ‘One Team’ – I look forward to our next achievements!” exclaimed Amanda French, Senior Audit Specialist, commemorating a decade.

Mentorship is one factor these dedicated professionals cited as key to their successes. “With diverse clients, industries, and cultures, broadening my perspective and enriching my experience,” said Nathalia Marques-Wiemers, “I am very grateful to the teammates, mentors, and colleagues who have shared their knowledge and encouragement along the way.” Marques-Wiemers, Lead Project Manager, celebrates 10 years at the company.

“I am especially grateful to Jim, who is no longer with us, and Anthony. Their mentorship had a lasting impact on my career,” added Brymer, reflecting on the mentorship of her late coworker Jim Bean and her coworker Anthony Lane.

Celebrating 20 years with Elizabeth Nolan were Kim Benefield, Finance Specialist II; Jay Hazen, Chief Ventures Officer; and Kimbly McDonald, Freight Bill Resolution Clerk.

“Thanks again to our Star employees who made this happen,” said Ken Hazen, CEO.
