

Zion Health Introduces a Revolutionary, One-of-a-Kind Vegan Keratin-Like System for Stronger, Smoother & Resilient Hair

The plant-based system delivers the strengthening, smoothing, & conditioning benefits associated with animal-derived keratin—without animal-derived ingredients.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Zion Health Inc., a wellness brand known for its earth-derived, clay-based formulations, announces the launch of its new Fortifying Sweet Amber Shampoo & Conditioner, powered by a revolutionary, one-of-a-kind vegan keratin-like system.

Developed as a plant-based alternative to traditional animal-derived keratin, the advanced system is designed to provide the same types of strengthening, smoothing, and conditioning benefits associated with keratin care—without using animal-derived ingredients.

At the heart of the collection is a blend of plant-derived proteins and amino acids from baobab, lentil, quinoa, and chickpea. These proteins help reinforce weakened strands, improve flexibility, reduce breakage, and leave damaged or stressed hair feeling smoother, softer, and more resilient.

The sulfate-free Fortifying Shampoo gently cleanses away excess oil, impurities, and product buildup without leaving hair feeling stripped. The matching Fortifying Conditioner softens, detangles, and replenishes moisture without weighing strands down.

Used together, the formulas provide a complete two-step strengthening routine that helps:

- Fortify weak areas along the hair strand
- Improve flexibility to help minimize snapping and breakage
- Smooth rough, damaged-looking hair
- Enhance softness, shine, and manageability
- Leave dry or stressed strands looking healthier and more polished

Zion Health's signature ionic clay minerals complement the vegan keratin-like system as part of the brand's mineral-infused approach to hair care. The formulas also contain botanical ingredients selected to support softness, hydration, and manageability.

Both products feature Zion Health's signature Sweet Amber scent, a powdery and resinous aroma with soft floral notes.
