

SCORE Washington Launches Tech Pitch Contest to Build Investment-Ready Startups

On September 16, SCORE Washington District will bring together technology entrepreneurs together to pitch innovative ideas.

SHORELINE, WA, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SCORE Washington District is bringing together entrepreneurs, mentors, and investors for its upcoming Technology Entrepreneurs Pitch Contest. The initiative is designed to help early-stage technology companies transform innovative ideas into scalable, investment-ready businesses.

The program provides a unique platform where entrepreneurs refine critical skills, validate business opportunities, and prepare for future funding. Throughout the journey, participants are paired with experienced technology mentors to strengthen their business models and build comprehensive pitch decks.

The contest supports startups across a wide range of sectors, including artificial intelligence, fintech, cybersecurity, software, hardware, life sciences, and renewable energy.

The final pitch event will take place on September 16, 2026, at the Shoreline City Hall. Top-scoring entrepreneurs will present their companies live before a distinguished panel of investors, industry experts, and business leaders, followed by an interactive Q&A session. Winning companies will receive multiple awards celebrating innovation and growth potential.

"Washington's technology ecosystem is built on innovation, collaboration, and entrepreneurship," said Jennifer Bussinger, SCORE West Regional Vice President. "Our goal is to create a supportive environment where entrepreneurs gain knowledge, build confidence, develop meaningful connections, and take important steps toward becoming investment-ready companies."

Beyond the competition, the event serves as a premier networking platform connecting promising founders with investors, bankers, startup executives, and technology leaders.
