

New Original Clay Painting Experience Featuring Shiro and Buriburizaemon Debuts at Nijigen no Mori on Awaji Island, Japan

Visitors can paint unglazed Shiro and Buriburizaemon figures in their preferred colors and create an original souvenir inspired by their visit to Awaji Island.

AWAJI, JAPAN, August 5, 2026
/EINPresswire.com/ -- At Crayon Shinchan Adventure Park, one of the popular attractions at Nijigen no Mori, the anime theme park located within Hyogo Prefectural Awajishima Park in Japan, the new Original Clay Painting Experience featuring motifs of Shiro and Buriburizaemon is now available.

The new experience allows visitors to paint unglazed Shiro and Buriburizaemon figures inspired by two of the series' popular characters. Participants can decorate each figure in colors of their choice, creating their own original designs. Completed figures can be taken home as original souvenirs of their visit to Awaji Island.

Available at Crayon Shinchan Adventure Park, the craft experience offers visitors another way to enjoy the attraction while creating a personalized souvenir.
