Every incredible journey begins with a moment of hope. For Chanel and Milo, two rescued dogs with very different beginnings, that journey became an inspiring story of friendship, kindness, and unconditional love.

Chanel & Milo The Legend Begins

Chanel & Milo: The Legend Begins is a children's book inspired by the true story of two remarkable, rescued dogs whose bond has captured the hearts of families, children, and dog lovers. The story celebrates the power of friendship and reminds children that every life has value, no matter how it begins.

Every rescued animal deserves a second chance. Chanel and Milo's journey shows children that kindness, love, and hope can change a life forever.”

Julia L. Rosengren

Chanel's story began in Texas, where she was found abandoned inside a garbage bag on the side of a road. Despite such a heartbreaking beginning, she found a loving home where she could heal, thrive, and discover the happiness she deserved.

Milo's journey began in Georgia, where he was rescued from a shelter by a loving Cuban family. When Chanel and Milo met, they formed an extraordinary friendship that became the inspiration for a heartwarming children's story filled with courage, compassion, loyalty, and hope.

Created by Julia L. Rosengren, filmmaker, actress, and author, together with Paul Davis, film director and writer, Chanel & Milo: The Legend Begins is the first book in an inspiring series of eleven children's books. Together, they created the series to share the message that rescued animals can bring extraordinary love into people's lives and that kindness can transform even the most difficult circumstances.

The book has already received enthusiastic reviews from families, children's book readers, and dog lovers who have embraced its uplifting message. Through real-life videos and stories of Chanel and Milo, the project continues to build a growing community that celebrates compassion, resilience, and the extraordinary bond between humans and rescued animals.

"Chanel and Milo's story shows children that every creature deserves love, care, and the opportunity to have a beautiful future," said Julia L. Rosengren, co-author. "Their journey proves that a difficult beginning does not define the amazing life that can follow."

Beyond the book, Chanel and Milo's mission is to inspire kindness, encourage awareness of rescued animals, and bring hope and joy to families around the world through their true story.
