

Global Dot Logistics Inc. Reports H1 2026 Revenue of $14.5M and Doubles Sambular Profit; Advances IPO Audit Readiness

Global Dot Logistics Inc. ("GDL") highlights strong operating scale across its logistics segments, improved profitability and tangible progress toward an IPO.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GDL, subsidiary of Livento Group, Inc., reported aggregate gross branch revenue of $14.53 million for the six months ended June 30, 2026 (unaudited, pre-elimination). June marked the strongest month of the half, with revenue reaching $2.78 million, a 13.0% sequential increase driven primarily by a 21.7% surge in Truck Line operations.

Key Business Highlights:

Strong Operating Scale: H1 revenue comprised $8.72 million  from freight Brokerage and  $5.81 million from asset-based Truck Line. Truck Line represented 43.7% of June's revenue, up from 36.8% in January, reflecting a strategic shift toward higher-margin owned capacity.

Sambular Profitability More Than Doubles: GDL's Czech subsidiary, Sambular, reported H1 net profit of  $189,000 (CZK 3.94M) , more than double its full-year 2025 result of $85,000. Management attributed this to improved margins, disciplined cost controls, and a selective project mix. The equity ratio improved from 7.0% to 12.5%.

IPO Auditor Selected: The Company completed its auditor-selection process in July 2026 (post cut-off), a critical milestone in its financial reporting and IPO-readiness workstream.

Strong July Momentum (Subsequent Event): Post-period, ALCS reported July revenue of $2.91 million, up 39% year-over-year, with load volume up 29% and active trucks up 48%.

H2 Priorities: Management's near-term focus remains on advancing audit readiness following the auditor selection, maintaining Sambular's cost discipline, and scaling Truck Line growth while closely protecting Brokerage margins (which compressed to 8.1% in July from 9.1% a year earlier).
