

NXTPoint Logistics Named No. 25 on Jacksonville Business Journal's Largest Employers List

This recognition underscores the company's growth and a deepening commitment to the Jacksonville community

JACKSONVILLE, FL, UNITED STATES,
August 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

NXTPoint Logistics has been recognized as the No. 25 largest employer in the Jacksonville Business Journal's Largest Employers list, featured in its July 2, 2026 issue (available exclusively to subscribers). The ranking highlights the company's expanding footprint and continued investment in workforce growth in the Jacksonville area.

We are proud to play a role in supporting the local economy and creating high-quality jobs that strengthen families and our local communities.”

Mike Liantonio, President at NXTPoint Logistics

This recognition reflects NXTPoint Logistics' steady evolution as a key driver of job creation and economic development in the region. With a growing team of logistics professionals, the company continues to scale its operations to meet increasing demand while providing meaningful career opportunities for local talent.

“Being named among the largest employers in Jacksonville is a testament to the dedication of our team and the strength of our growth strategy,” said Mike Liantonio, President at NXTPoint Logistics. “We are proud to play a role in supporting the local economy and creating high-quality jobs that strengthen families and our local communities.”

NXTPoint Logistics has consistently expanded its capabilities to serve a diverse customer base, investing in people, infrastructure and technology to enhance supply chain efficiency. The company's commitment to hiring and developing talent locally has positioned it as both a major employer and a long-term partner in the region's economic vitality.

As NXTPoint Logistics continues to grow, it remains focused on fostering a workplace culture that prioritizes operational excellence, innovation and community engagement. The company's recognition by the Jacksonville Business Journal reflects not only the scale of the organization, but also its ongoing commitment to making a positive and lasting impact in Northeast Florida.
