

NINETEEN MINUTES LATER TO PERFORM AT DENVER'S HISTORIC GOTHIC THEATRE

NINETEEN MINUTES LATER, a Denver-based alternative rock band, announces a hometown performance at the historic GOTHIC THEATRE in ENGLEWOOD/DENVER, COLORADO.

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Denver based alternative rock group NINETEEN MINUTES LATER will appear live at the GOTHIC THEATRE, marking a meaningful hometown performance for the band. The show highlights their continued growth within Colorado's music community and their longstanding connection to the state.

A Venue with Local Significance:

The GOTHIC THEATRE, originally built in the 1920s and restored in the 1990s, remains one of the Denver area's most recognizable historic venues. Its preserved architecture and intimate acoustics have made it a consistent stage for both emerging and established artists.

A Homegrown Band Returning to a Familiar Stage:

NINETEEN MINUTES LATER formed and developed in Denver, building their following through local shows, collaborations, and steady support from the community. Their upcoming performance at the Gothic Theatre reflects that connection and offers an opportunity to share new material with the audience that has supported them from the beginning.
