

PatchMaster Expands Across Northwest Houston & College Station with Family-Owned Franchise

Todd Honea brings customer-focused leadership and specialized drywall repair services to Northwest Houston, Bryan, College Station, and surrounding communities

NORTHWEST HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- PatchMaster®, the nation's leading drywall repair and interior painting franchise, announced today the continued expansion of PatchMaster Northwest Houston & College Station, owned and operated by Todd Honea. The family-owned business provides drywall repair, ceiling repair, drywall installation, texture matching, and interior painting services for homeowners and businesses throughout Northwest Houston and the Bryan-College Station area, including Cypress, Katy, Hockley, Waller, Montgomery, Bryan, College Station, and the communities of Bridgeland, Towne Lake, Copperfield, and Hayden Lakes. From repairing small holes and nail pops to restoring walls and ceilings damaged by water leaks, plumbing work, remodeling projects, and everyday wear and tear, PatchMaster specializes in seamless repairs that restore surfaces to like-new condition.

THE DRYWALL REPAIR SPECIALISTS

After more than 26 years in the technology industry, Honea launched PatchMaster to combine his passion for customer service with the opportunity to build a family-owned business. Throughout his career in customer relationship management, he developed a simple philosophy: every customer interaction should exceed expectations and create a positive experience from start to finish.

Todd's customer relationship experience, combined with his commitment to outstanding service, positions him to become a trusted resource for customers throughout Northwest Houston and College Station.”

"I wanted to build something of my own without the significant startup costs and long timelines that come with many traditional businesses," said Honea. "PatchMaster offered a proven business model, outstanding support, and the opportunity to begin serving customers quickly. Most importantly, it gave me the chance to build a business centered on treating every customer the way I'd want to be treated and delivering quality work every day."

As an Aggie family-owned business, Honea operates PatchMaster alongside his wife and two sons. Together, they are focused on serving one of Texas's fastest-growing regions, where continued residential and commercial development is driving increased demand for professional drywall repair and interior painting services.

Homeowners commonly contact PatchMaster after plumbing repairs, electrical work, HVAC installations, water leaks, home renovations, moving furniture, and everyday wear and tear have damaged walls or ceilings. Whether homeowners need drywall repair in Northwest Houston or throughout Bryan and College Station, PatchMaster specializes exclusively in repairing and restoring damaged walls and ceilings. Unlike general contractors or handymen, PatchMaster technicians specialize in one craft, consistently delivering seamless repairs that blend with existing walls and ceilings. Services include repairing holes, cracks, popcorn ceilings, water-damaged drywall, texture matching, and drywall damaged during plumbing, electrical, and remodeling projects.

"The best local businesses are built by owners who genuinely care about the communities they serve," said Paul Ferrara, President and CEO of PatchMaster. "Todd's decades of customer relationship experience, combined with his commitment to outstanding service, position him to become a trusted resource for homeowners and businesses throughout Northwest Houston and College Station."

Honea is especially excited about serving communities experiencing rapid growth, including Northwest Houston, where continued residential development, the emerging Toro District, and the future Houston Texans headquarters are creating new opportunities for homeowners and businesses alike. College Station and Bryan also continue to experience significant residential growth, making dependable drywall repair and interior painting services increasingly valuable for both longtime residents and new homeowners.

As an owner-operator, Honea remains actively involved in the day-to-day operations of the business, ensuring quality workmanship and a seamless customer experience on every project.

When he's not helping customers restore their homes, he enjoys spending time with his family, attending Texans games, cheering on the Fightin' Texas Aggies, watching baseball and soccer, and playing golf together.
