

Laconia Motorcycle Week Executive Director Injured in Motorcycle Accident

LACONIA, NH, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Laconia Motorcycle Week Association would like to inform our friends that Executive Director Charlie St. Clair was involved in a motorcycle accident on Tuesday, August 4, in Avon, Ohio.

Charlie sustained severe injuries and is currently receiving care in the intensive care unit at a Cleveland hospital. The cause of the accident was due to a tire malfunction. No one else was injured in the accident. At this early stage, the full extent of Charlie's injuries and his long-term prognosis are not yet known.

We are incredibly grateful to the Avon Police Department and emergency personnel for their swift response and care. Our thoughts are with Charlie and his loved ones during this difficult time.

The Association will provide updates as they become available.
