

New Leaf Debt Solutions Recognized for Empowering Canadians Through Financial Education and Debt Counselling

PICKERING, ONTARIO, CANADA, August 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that New Leaf Debt Solutions has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Credit & Debt Counselling Service category. This recognition reflects the organization's commitment to helping Canadians regain financial stability through trusted guidance, education, and support.

New Leaf Debt Solutions is a registered non-profit organization dedicated to helping individuals and families overcome financial challenges and build stronger financial futures.

Through free credit counselling, financial education, and affordable debt management programs, the organization provides practical solutions designed to help Canadians take control of their finances with confidence.

"At New Leaf Debt Solutions, our mission is to help Canadians turn over a new leaf by renewing their finances through education, support, and personalized guidance," said the New Leaf Debt Solutions team. "This recognition reflects the positive impact our services have had on individuals and families working toward financial well-being."

As a non-profit organization, New Leaf Debt Solutions focuses on providing unbiased, client-centred support. Its team works closely with individuals to assess their financial situations, develop realistic plans, and provide the tools needed to achieve long-term financial health.

What sets the organization apart is its commitment to education. In addition to counselling services, New Leaf Debt Solutions offers financial literacy resources designed to help Canadians better understand budgeting, credit management, and responsible financial decision-making.
