Available today, Fremont Street Experience introduces License to Fly, a brand-new offer, the first of its kind for the entertainment district, that gives Nevada residents 35% off of downtown Las Vegas' most iconic attraction.

Available any day, at any time during operating hours, the License to Fly offer gives Nevada residents a discount on all regular-priced SlotZilla tickets, both the upper and lower lines. With two ride experiences soaring under the world-famous Fremont Street canopy, SlotZilla now offers Nevadans a brand-new way to experience the heart of Las Vegas.

"Our Nevada residents are the heartbeat of Fremont Street Experience so this is our way of saying thank you to those who have supported us for generations," said Cliff Atkinson, president and CEO of Fremont Street Experience. "While millions of visitors have made SlotZilla a must-do Las Vegas adventure, this offer gives our community an opportunity to experience Downtown from an entirely new perspective. Whether it's your first flight or your fifth, we're proud to make one of Las Vegas' most iconic attractions more accessible to the people who call Nevada home."

Fremont Street Experience is an electrifying, five-block entertainment district where the spirit of vintage Las Vegas meets unforgettable modern thrills. Guests can choose between two exhilarating SlotZilla experiences including the Zip Line, which soars riders from 77 feet above in a seated position for a thrilling three-block flight, or the Zoom Line, where riders soar superhero-style from 11 stories high, flying five blocks beneath The Canopy, Vegas' most well-known neon sky.

The discount for Nevada residents is available for purchase online and at the SlotZilla box office. For tickets, operating hours and additional information, visit FremontStreetExperience.com.
