ST. PETERSBURG, FL, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Northwest Collision Center Opens Expanded Customer Lounge in St. Pete

ST. PETERSBURG, FL, July 2026 – Northwest Collision Center has completed its expanded customer lounge at the shop's Tyrone Boulevard location. The larger space gives drivers an area to use while their vehicles are in for repair. The lounge is finished and now open to customers.

The project follows the company's expansion of its St. Petersburg facility from 17,000 to 42,000 square feet. The build-out was designed to support faster service and more advanced repair capabilities. The finished lounge extends that added space to the customer side of the operation.

People are trusting us with their vehicle, and the least we can do is give them a better place to sit while they're here.”

Greg Descent, Owner, Northwest Collision Center

Northwest Collision Center has been family-owned and operated since 1959, making it the city's oldest collision repair center. The shop is I-CAR Gold Class certified, a distinction held by about 10 percent of collision centers nationwide. It is also factory-approved by Mazda and Lexus, accredited by the Better Business Bureau, and backed by more than 680 five-star Google reviews.

Day-to-day, the team handles auto body and collision repair in St. Petersburg for all makes and models. Services range from paintless dent repair on light damage to frame straightening, refinishing, and full restoration work, including Tesla and EV repair.

A Message From the Owner

"We expanded the shop floor, and the lounge was the other half of that job. People are trusting us with their vehicle, and the least we can do is give them a better place to sit while they're here," said Greg Descent, Owner of Northwest Collision Center.
